

Ellen M. Hazeur is the newest member of the Dixie Cups. She considers singing with the group to be a great honor. “The Dixie Cups blessed the world with timeless and beautiful music. Even after 60 years, people still recognize and joyfully sing along with Chapel of Love and other hits. To be able to continue the Cups’ legacy, and to do it with Ms. Barbara Hawkins, the original Dixie Cup, is a blessing.” Singing with the Cups also allowed Ellen to reembrace her musical roots.

She began piano lessons at a young age and was the volunteer church pianist at her home church through middle and high school. As a liberal arts major focused on classical piano at Xavier University of Louisiana, she frequently performed with multiple university choirs, as well as various bands in New Orleans. After completing law school at Tulane, Ellen decided to serve her community through public service. For over thirty years, she has served her beloved New Orleans as an elected public servant and is currently a sitting judge in the Civil District Court of Orleans Parish.
